PROGRAM REPORT OF INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON “EMPOWERING NURSES FOR EVIDENCE-BASED CLINICAL PRACTICE”

DATE:17/01/2025

The International Conference on Empowering Nurses for Evidence-Based Clinical Practice, held on 17th January 2025 at the multipurpose hall of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing (SSCN), Vapi, was a remarkable event that combined academic excellence, research insights, and professional expertise. The conference was conducted in a hybrid mode, enabling online and offline participation, thereby accommodating the global audience and ensuring widespread accessibility.

OBJECTIVES:

- Promote Evidence-Based Nursing Practice
- Discuss Applications of Systematic Reviews Across Disciplines
- Address Challenges in Referencing Standards
- Foster Interdisciplinary Approaches to Conceptual Frameworks
- Raise Awareness About Plagiarism and Academic Integrity
- Explore Tools and Resources for Effective Manuscript Preparation

COMMENCEMENT OF THE CONFERENCE

The conference began at 8:00 AM with registration and breakfast, creating a welcoming atmosphere for offline participants to network and online attendees to connect via a seamless virtual interface.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS:

The first session, from 9:00 AM to 9:45 AM, featured an insightful "Systematic Review" presentation by Dr. Ritin Santiago Fernandez, Professor of Nursing and Assistant Dean International at the University of Newcastle. She emphasised the critical role of systematic reviews in evidence-based nursing practice. Madam covered topics such as types and standards of systematic reviews, topic selection, steps involved, question development, qualitative and cost-effectiveness reviews, citation screening, data extraction, and the role of AI in automating reviews. The session, moderated by Prof.

Samuel Fernandis, Principal of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, set a strong academic tone for the day.

INAUGURATION CEREMONY:

The inauguration began at 10:00 AM with a welcome address by Prof. Samuel Fernandis, followed by the felicitation of the chief guest, Smt. Sandra Shroff, Chairperson of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, as well as dignitaries and Gujarat Nursing Council observers. Smt. Sandra Shroff inaugurated the conference theme, "Empowering Nurses for Evidence-Based Clinical Practice" and highlighted the need for an international conference to advance nursing education and professionalism. She also emphasized the vital role of nurses in healthcare. The ceremony concluded with a vote of thanks by Prof. J.M. Silja, expressing gratitude to all contributors.

SECOND SESSION: REFERENCE SYSTEMS

From 10:30 AM to 11:15 AM, Dr. Shrikanth Muralidharan, Research Course Coordinator at the National Institute of Naturopathy, Pune, delivered a session on "Reference Systems." through the online platform. He discussed the importance of proper referencing in maintaining academic integrity, types of referencing styles such as APA and Vancouver, citation tools, and practical examples of accurate referencing in high-quality research.

Prof. J.M. Silja, HOD of the Child Health Nursing Department, SSCN Faculty moderated the session by highlighting key points of the presentation.

THIRD SESSION: APPLICATION OF CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORKS

From 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM, Dr. Nancy Fernandes, former Principal of L T College of Nursing, SNDT University, presented on "Application of Conceptual Frameworks" She explained the distinction between theoretical and conceptual frameworks with practical examples. Madam illustrated the use of system theory in structuring research through inputs, throughput, output, and feedback, and applied Roy's Adaptation Model to analyze patient adaptation to health challenges.

Mrs. Mayuri Patel, Associate Professor and HOD of Obstetrics and Gynaecological Nursing, SSCN Faculty, moderated the session, ensuring interactive discussions and participant engagement.

POST-LUNCH SESSION: PLAGIARISM

Resuming at 12:30 PM, Dr. Chinmay Baxi, Associate Professor at P. P. Savani University, Surat, presented on "Plagiarism." He clarified the difference between plagiarism and similarity, types of plagiarism, and issues like ghost-writing³. He offered strategies to reduce similarity, emphasizing originality and proper referencing to uphold academic integrity. Mrs. Sheba Joverse, Associate Professor and HOD of the Medical-Surgical Department, SSCN Faculty moderated the session, encouraging participant interaction and also emphasized following the key ideas of the presentation.

FINAL SESSION: MANUSCRIPT WRITING

From 2:30 PM to 3:15 PM, Dr. Anita Nawale, Vice Principal of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, conducted a session on "Manuscript Writing" She covered manuscript types, essential components like the introduction, methods, results, and discussion, and tips for writing impactful abstracts. She addressed common reasons for manuscript rejection and introduced AI tools to enhance the writing process. The session provided practical guidance for improving manuscript.

The session was moderated by Mrs. Suparna Chakraborty, Associate Professor of Community Health Nursing, SSCN Faculty. who facilitated an engaging and interactive discussion. Her expertise ensured that participants gained valuable insights into manuscript writing, encouraging active participation and the sharing of experiences.

VALEDICTORY SESSION

The conference concluded with the valedictory session from 3:30 PM to 4:00 PM. Prof. Samuel Fernandis, Principal, delivered the closing remarks, reflecting on the success of the event and its significant impact on advancing nursing education and practice. Mrs. Mayuri Patel, Associate Professor, presented a summary of the conference, highlighting key sessions and discussions. The conference received positive feedback from the audience, with participants expressing appreciation for the high-quality sessions, engaging discussions, and the opportunity to interact with experts in the field. Many attendees highlighted the practical insights gained, which they planned to incorporate into their professional practice and research. Certificates of participation were distributed to attendees, and awards were presented to the winners of the scientific paper presentations for their outstanding contributions. A vote of thanks was offered by Dr. Anita Nawale, Vice Principal of Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, who expressed her gratitude to the resource persons, moderators, participants, and organizers for their invaluable contributions to the success of the conference. She acknowledged the hard work of everyone involved in making the event a success.

The day ended with high tea from 4:00 PM to 4:30 PM, providing attendees with an opportunity to reflect on the sessions, engage in informal discussions, and network further.

The scientific paper presentation was conducted on January 16th through an online platform, where a total of 14 presenters, including research scholars and faculty members, showcased their research work. The presentations were thoroughly evaluated by Dr. Nancy Fernandes and Dr. Anita Nawale, who provided valuable feedback and insights on the quality and relevance of the presented research. This session provided an excellent opportunity for participants to showcase their work and receive expert guidance, further enhancing the academic experience of the conference.

The day ended with high tea from 4:00 PM to 4:30 PM, providing attendees with an opportunity to reflect on the sessions, engage in informal discussions, and network further.

A total of delegates 280 from that 68 participants from out of state and 211 from Gujarat including faculty & Students have attended the conference, making it a resounding success.

The conference on empowering nurses for evidence-based clinical practice was a great success, featuring insightful sessions on systematic reviews, conceptual frameworks, plagiarism, and manuscript writing. It provided participants with valuable knowledge and practical tools for advancing nursing research. The scientific paper presentations, with 14 presenters, were a key highlight, offering opportunities for feedback and academic exchange. Overall, the event fostered collaboration and professional growth among [insert number] delegates, leaving attendees inspired and equipped to apply evidence-based practices in their work.

INTRODUCTION

Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Department of Child Health Nursing and Obstetrics & Gynaecological Nursing in collaboration with Academy of Pediatrics, Gujarat, National Neonatal Forum and Academy of Pediatrics and Charitable Trust, Vapi has organized National E- conference and workshop on theme “ENSURE SAFE NEWBORN CARE” on 4th and 5th June 2025.

The Conference and Workshop on Ensuring Safe Newborn Care was designed to address the critical need for improving neonatal outcomes through updated knowledge, evidence-based practices, and hands-on clinical training. Despite advancements in healthcare, India continues to account for one of the highest neonatal mortality rates in the world, with approximately 20 deaths per 1,000 live births (as per the Sample Registration System, 2023). A significant number of these deaths are preventable with timely and skilled care in the early days of life. This conference brought together healthcare professionals to build capacity in key areas and emphasizes in skill development to reduce preventable neonatal deaths and ensure that every newborn receives safe newborn care and the best possible in start of life.

Organizing Secretary for the event was Prof. Mrs. J.M. Silja, HOD Department of Child Health Nursing. Organizing committee members were Mrs. Mayuri Patel, Associate Professor, HOD Department of Gynaecological Nursing, Mrs. Poonam Patel, Assistant Professor, Mrs. Darshana Gavli, Assistant Professor, Mrs. Daulat Kuwar, Ms. Simran Shaikh and Ms. Sheetal M. K., Mrs. Damini Patel and Mrs. Sangita Kansara, Nursing Tutor.

AIM OF THE CONFERENCE

The aim of the conference is to enhance the knowledge, skill proficiency and best clinical practices of healthcare professionals to ensure safe, evidence-based, and holistic care for newborns.

OBJECTIVE OF CONFERENCE

- To strengthen foundational knowledge in newborn care for nurses, midwives, and healthcare providers.
- To promote evidence-based practices in neonatal thermoregulation
- To encourage collaborative care through nurse-parent partnerships and Kangaroo Mother Care (KMC).
- To equip strategies for implementing effective infection control measures that reduce neonatal morbidity and mortality.
- To enhance clinical competencies in newborn assessment, resuscitation, drug and feeding calculations, equipment care and Kangaroo mother care.
- To reduce neonatal morbidity and mortality through early identification and timely intervention

THEME: “ENSURE SAFE NEWBORN CARE”

COMMENCEMENT OF THE EVENT

DAY 1: NATIONALE-CONFERENCE (4th June 2025)

On 4th June, 2025 the E-conference began at 01:00pm at Zoom Meeting Platform. The event commenced with warm welcome address by Prof. Mrs. J. M. Silja, HOD Department of Child Health Nursing, Organizing Secretary who welcomed and expressed gratitude to all the distinguished speakers, participants, and the organizing team followed by Virtual lamp lighting ceremony and the inauguration of the conference. Keynote address was delivered by Dr. Anita Nawale, Incharge Principal of SSCN who highlighted the significance of theme.

SESSION 1: REVIEW ON BASICS OF NEW BORN CARE

Dr. Shaukat Panjwani, Neonatologist, Vapi delivered a session on Review on basics of new born care. This session laid the foundation for the day by revisiting essential components of newborn assessment, initial stabilization, and early warning signs — reinforcing the need for prompt, protocol-based care.

SESSION 2: EVIDENCE BASED PRACTICE IN THE THERMOREGULATION

Dr. Vishal Gohil, Neonatologist, Ahmedabad, presented on Evidence based practice in the thermoregulation. This session provided an engaging blend of scientific theory and practical application in thermal protection of newborns. He discussed evidence-based techniques to prevent neonatal hypothermia and introduced tools like liquid crystal thermometers, offering participants practical insights for clinical implementation.

SESSION 3: INFECTION CONTROL: A WAY TO REDUCE MORTALITY & MORBIDITY

Dr. Urvi Sanghvi, Neonatologist, Rajkot, spoke on Infection control: a way to reduce mortality & morbidity. This eye-opening session emphasized that infection prevention is not optional but essential. Dr. Urvi detailed recent strategies, national guidelines, and stressed the vital role nurses play in reducing hospital-acquired infections through adherence to aseptic protocols.

SESSION 4: NURSE-PARENT TEAM IN FACILITATING KANGAROO MOTHER CARE

Dr. Kunal Ahya, Neonatologist, Rajkot conducted a session on Nurse-parent team in facilitating kangaroo mother care. This interactive session highlighted the synergy between nursing teams and parents in implementing Kangaroo Mother Care (KMC). Backed by research evidence, he demonstrated how KMC can dramatically improve survival and bonding in LBW neonates.

The virtual conference witnessed enthusiastic participation of nursing professionals, students, faculty members and PhD

scholars, with 719 attendees (450 joined on Zoom platform due to bulk registration) from across India. The E- conference concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Mayuri Patel, Associate Professor, HOD Department of Gynaecological Nursing, SSCN thanking the speakers, organizers, and participants for their contributions to the success of the event.

DAY 2 – HANDS-ON WORKSHOP (5th June 2025)

The second day of the event transitioned from learning to doing — focusing on translating clinical knowledge into practical competency. This hands-on workshop was designed to build confidence, precision, and skill-based mastery in essential areas of newborn care.

The offline workshop translated knowledge into practice through 6 skill stations.

Key stations included:

- Neonatal Supportive Equipment Station – Department of Child Health Nursing
- Kangaroo Mother Care – Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecological Nursing
- Newborn Assessment – Dr. Krunal Shah & Dr. Shaukat Panjwani
- Newborn Resuscitation – Dr. Hemant Patel
- Drug Calculation & Administration – Dr. Ashish Gamit
- Feeding Calculation & Administration – Dr. Jeet Mavani

Each station was led by neonatology experts and supported by faculty to ensure real-time guidance.

VALEDICTORY SESSION

The event concluded with valedictory session from 4:00pm to 5:00 pm. All the expert resource persons and scientific research paper evaluator were felicitated with memento and certificates. Prof. Mrs. J.M. Silja, HOD Department of Child Health Nursing, Organizing Secretary presented the highlights of the event. Dr. Ashish Gamit, Neonatologist, Valsad addressed the gathering and shared words of encouragement and insight. Dr. Krunal Shah, Neonatologist, Vapi and Coordinator of this event, delivered a Words of Wisdom and Motivation. The event received positive feedback from the audience, with participants expressing appreciation about highly informative and relevant sessions. Many attendees highlighted the practical insights gained, which they planned to incorporate into clinical practices. Certificates of participation were distributed to attendees. A vote of thanks was offered by Mrs. Mayuri Patel, Associate Professor, HOD Department of Gynaecological Nursing who expressed her gratitude to the resource person, participants and organizers for invaluable contributions to the success of the conference.

The workshop witnessed enthusiastic participation from nursing professionals, students and faculty members of South Gujarat. Total 281 participants attended workshop. The overwhelming response reflected a keen interest in newborn care.

Scientific Research Paper Presentation:

As a prelude to the main conference, a Scientific Research Paper Presentation was held on 3rd June 2025, providing a platform for PhD Scholars and professionals from across the country to present their research work and innovations related to neonatal care. Total 10 presenters participated in Scientific Research Paper Presentation. The session was jointly evaluated by Dr. Nancy Fernadis and Dr. Anitha Nawale. Their insightful feedback and constructive evaluations added great value to the academic experience of all participants. The session was smoothly convened by Mrs. Sheba Joverse, Associate Professor, along with Mrs. Jagruti Tandel and Mrs. Drashti Patel, Nursing Tutor whose coordination and meticulous planning ensured its successful execution.

SWOT ANALYSIS

A SWOT analysis of the event highlighted several key points.

STRENGTHS

- Well-structured sessions led by expert speakers.

- High engagement from participants.
- Informative discussions on relevant topics.

WEAKNESS

- A technical glitch caused minor disruptions during the sessions, which was noted as a weakness.

PRE- TEST AND POST TEST RESULT

As a part of efforts to enhance knowledge through this event , pre-test and post-test evaluation was conducted. The findings were that there was remarkably increased in score from 46.9% to 76.1% in good level of knowledge category. The result show a significant improvement in participant's knowledge and understanding following the sessions.

CONCLUSION

The National E-Conference and Workshop on “Ensure Safe Newborn Care” was a resounding success. It created a strong platform for clinical learning, knowledge sharing, and skill development. The synergy between theory and practice helped strengthen the confidence and competence of nursing professionals committed to safe and quality newborn care.
