INTRODUCTION:

Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, also known as Baba Saheb Ambedkar, was born on April 14, 1891, at Mhow in Madhya Pradesh, India. His father was Ramji Makoji Sakpal, who was an army officer in the British India Army. Dr. B.R. Ambedkar was the fourteenth son of his father. Bhimabai Sakpal was his mother. His family was of Marathi background from the town of Ambawade. Dr. B. R. Ambedkar was born as a Dalit and he was treated as an untouchable. He was subjected to regular social and economic discrimination. Although Mr. Baba Saheb Ambedkar was regularly attending his school, he and other dalit students were treated as untouchables.

Ambedkar was popularly known as Babasaheb Ambedkar and everyone knows that he was one of the architects of the Indian Constitution. He was a very well-known political leader, eminent jurist,

Buddhist activist, philosopher, anthropologist, historian, orator, writer, economist, scholar, editor and many more.
