Theme: JEEVAN DARSHAN

Around 9.30am we reached our destination, Met Rofel Namdha college Principal Prof. Hemali mam. Thereafter we all completed our registration as well as breakfast.

Followed by at 10.00am program was started with Melodious song all the guest were welcomed by beautiful bouquet. Dignitaries lighted the lamp on the dais.

Followed by speech given by the Prof. Hemali mam, principal of Rofel Arts and commerce college Namdha Vapi. She has explained Covid-19 pandemic has affected on all the NSS activities. As a teacher and PO of NSS we must motivate students towards NSS activities. This is the one and only platform to do something for our Nation.

Next speech was delivered by Hemangi sir, one of trusty of Rofel colleges in vapi. He has explained that, Students should focus on self-development. NSS teaches and develops discipline, on this he gave lot of examples which motivates each and every one present in the program.

Followed by speech given by Dr. Kishor Singh Chavada Sir, vice chancellor of VNSGU university appreciated for dedication towards NSS. Later he explained that, we must follow ideal people path, towards developing Indian culture and history. Give importance to the parents and family not social media.

Around 11.45am Dr. J.M Naik Sir delivered speech on “NSS in 21st century”. He explained that, “THINK GLOBALLY AND ACT LOCALLY” means focus on reduce and control over man made problems, work on local and small problems instead of big changes so it automatically reduce the chances hazards. Now adays youths are more involved in drugs. The college campus, society, city one by one must be free from drugs and drug pedlars.

Next session was started after the lunch break 3.00pm, here Dr. Vikrambhai Desai explained in his speech that, Dedication of Mahatma Gandhiji towards “QUITE INDIA”. And use available resources to develop self and personality instead of focusing on problems. All should develop interest in variety of fields.

Last but not the least a very motivational words was delivered by Dr. Dipesh sir, in his session sir kept everyone entertaining by their various examples and conducted small intellectual games among students. By these games sir wanted to say that, students should develop curiosity, open up themselves, and do hard work so all of them will achieve their goals in their life instead of following same routine in life. “WHO HAS GOALS, THEY HAVE FUTURE”.

CONCLUSION:

The workshop “JEEVAN DARSHAN” was successfully concluded at 4.30pm. all the participants took memorable pic of receiving certificates along with dignitaries. It was very proud moment for all of us which was seen on the faces of the participants.

Thanks to all who in one way or another Contributed for the event. I acknowledge with gratitude and devotion to THE ALMIGHTLY GOD whose grace and blessing accompanied us throughout the workshop.

I am thankful to Our beloved Academic Chairman Maj. Gen. Mrs. T.K Bhutia mam, Principal Prof. Samuel Fernandis sir for their guidance and support for this training program.

Last but not the least heartfelt gratitude to Smt. Sandra Shroff, Founder and chairman of SSRCN for always supporting us and providing us necessary facilities.
