INTRODUCTION: Swami Vivekananda was one of the most popular Hindu monks and spiritual leaders of India. His name was Narendranath Datta. He was born on 12th January 1863 into a Bengali Kayastha family of Calcutta. His father's name was Vishwanath Datta. He was a legal practitioner at the Calcutta High Court. His mother's name was Bhubaneswari Devi. She was a housewife. He was inclined towards spirituality from a very young age. He used to meditate in front of the idols of Lord Shiva, Lord Ram, etc. Swami Vivekananda's speech at Parliament of the World's Religions in Chicago in 1893 made him profoundly famous. He began his speech with "Sisters and brothers of America..." which won many hearts. He was an ardent disciple of spiritual leader, Sri Ramakrishna. He revived Hinduism in India. He made a prominent contribution to spreading the concept of Indian nationalism among the people of India. Swami Vivekananda's birthday 12th January is celebrated as National Youth Day in India. He died on 4th July 1902 while meditating. His disciples believed that he attained Mahasamadhi.

Later Dr. B.R Sudani Sir has given energetic and motivational speech on “ROLE OF YOUTH IN NATION UPLIFTING”, Sir explained and expressed his views about how Swami Vivekananda Encouraged our youths for developing our developing Nation in those days. Youths should follow their ways to reach goals. Youths should be like Atmanirbhar Bharat, it means they should be independent to develop our Nation as well as themselves in this society. Youths should not be just job oriented; they should focus on the things going on in the Nation as well as what they can do for the Nation to develop it, which is in the hands of youngsters and energetic youths

Followed by next speech was delivered by Mrs. Divya Pancholi Assistant Professor mam on behalf of Prof. Samuel Fernandis sir, Principal SSRCN as sir were out of station due to some official work. Mam has explained the Swami Vivekananda was perfect example of intellect and humanity; he has been an inspiration for the youth of the nation and will remain so far, many more generation to come. Followed by speech given by Ms. Jiya Mishra, students of coaching class, she said Youths has the power to change the world, when youth is united, they can make the world better place to live, and when they are divided, they also become the power to destroy the world.

After Swami Vivekananda Jayanti celebration, vote of thanks has been given by Ms. Akanksha Patel 2nd year B.Sc. nursing student, for each and every one who gave their specious time and contribution to this event. Special thanks to our guest speaker Dr. B.R. Sudani sir.

After we all sang NATIONAL ANTHEM and took group photo for a event memory.

CONCLUSION: At around 1.30pm we have concluded our event of SWAMI VIVEKANANDA JAYANTI celebration which was a great success. I acknowledge with gratitude and devotion to THE ALMIGHTLY GOD whose grace and blessing accompanied us throughout the event.

I am thankful to Our beloved Academic Chairman Maj. Gen. Mrs. T.K Bhutia mam, Principal Prof. Samuel Fernandis sir for their guidance and support for this training program and all faculty members of SSRCN for their presence.

Last but not the least heartfelt gratitude to Smt. Sandra Shroff madam, Founder and chairman of SSRCN for always supporting us and providing us necessary facilities.
