Report on Soft Skill Training Program for Nursing Professionals

Introduction:

Soft skills are essential for nursing professionals as they improve communication, confidence, teamwork, and professional behaviour in healthcare settings. To enhance these skills among students and faculty, Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi organized a Soft Skill Training Program.

Program Details :

Sandra Shroff College of Nursing, Vapi in collaboration with NITS Overseas organized a “Soft Skill Training Program for Nursing Professionals” on 5th March 2026 at the Multipurpose Hall from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM. The program was organized by the IQSC Cell of SSCN.

The resource person for the program was Dr. Dipesh Shah, Campus Director of N.K. Desai Science & Commerce College, Killa Pardi. He conducted an interactive session on topics such as communication skills, confidence building, personality development, teamwork, and leadership qualities. Faculty members and nursing students actively participated and benefited from the session.

Conclusion

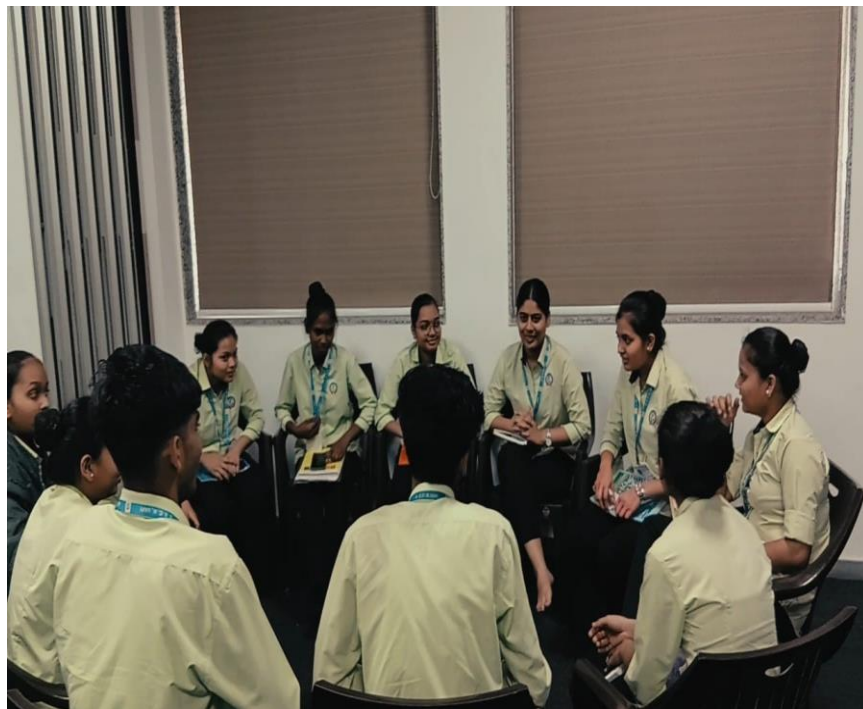

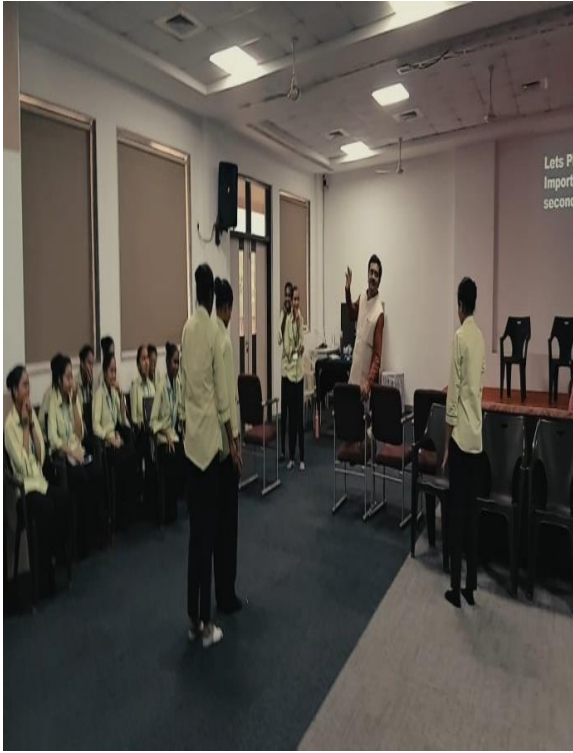

The program was informative and motivating. It helped participants understand the importance of soft skills in professional nursing practice and encouraged them to develop these skills for better patient care and career growth.
